

Compound Registration

Compound Registration is a tool designed to help users in the decision upon the uniqueness of new compounds. After applying a set of configurable business rules, the new submissions are usually automatically registered.